

BOND ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY.

Concise Statement of the Proposition Before

REFUNDING BONDS ASKED

To Reduce Interest on $35,000 Indebtedness and $25,000 Is Sought by Council for the Purpose of Making Street Improvements.

The purpose of the special borough election to be held in Connellville on Tuesday next has been set forth in certain legal notices from time to time published in the advertisement columns of The Courier, but it is not clearly understood how many state briefly that two propositions are submitted to the people for approval or rejection.

The first is for the issue of $35,000 of funding bonds for the purpose of liquidating $18,837 outstanding certificates of indebtedness bearing the legal rate of 6% and $15,967 unpaid bills some of which bear interest while others may be settled without interest. Assuming, however, that the floating debt is as estimated in the election notice, $35,000, and that it all bears interest at 6%, the total annual interest charge would be $2,100; refunded at 4 1/2% it would be $1,575, a saving of $525 annually.

The borough already has bonds outstanding amounting to $161,000. If the refunding proposition is approved by the people this will bring the outstanding bonds up to $186,000, being 2.75% of the total valuation of the borough as shown by the last assessment.

The second proposition upon which the citizens are asked to pass upon at the polls Tuesday is for the issue of $25,000 of 4 1/2% bonds for the purpose of street improvements. It is argued in favor of this increase of indebtedness that the expansion of the borough limits carried with it obligations to make certain improvements in these lines and that future generations should share their cost as they will share their benefits. If this bond issue is approved the election on Tuesday it will increase the bonded indebtedness of Connellville to $211,000, or 4.1% of the assessed valuation of the borough.

The law permits the Town Council to contract bonded indebtedness to the extent of 2% of the assessed valuation. With the consent of the people at an election called for that purpose, as in the present case, the Town Council may increase the indebtedness as much as 7% of the assessed valuation. It will be noted that the refunding bonds will bring the indebtedness up to a little over one-half that permitted by law, but it will also be noticed that the Town Council has created this floating indebtedness probably due to violation of law. A portion of the present bond issue of the borough was authorized by the people, notably the sewer bonds of $35,000, but it is evident that when the borough debt rose beyond $100,000 Town Councilmen were exceeding the law.

J. W. BROWN RESIGNS TO GO WITH THE CHICAGO & ELGIN.

Superintendent of Transportation for West Penn Railways
Will Leave About August 1st According to Report.
Official Confirmation Lacking Owing to Absence From Town of Mr. Brown.

A report comes from Uniontown and McKeesport today that J. W. Brown, Superintendent of Transportation for the West Penn Railways Company, has resigned and about the first of August will go to Chicago to accept a position as Superintendent of Transportation for the Chicago & Elgin railway, a great third rail system running into the Windy City. Mr. Brown is in Mt. Pleasant today and could not be reached in time for verification of the story that he will leave the West Penn.

However, it is stated on credible authority that Mr. Brown has accepted the offer of the Western road and will take up his duties there, at the earliest opportunity, by early fall. In leaving the West Penn J. W. Brown will leave a host of friends, both among the officials of the big trolley system and among the business men and traveling public with whom he has come in contact during his service with the road at the head of the transportation. Mr. Brown has been with the West Penn since it started. He came up from the ranks and has every detail of the transportation and of the railway business at his finger tips.

Much credit for the splendid service of the West Penn from Greensburg to the southern extreme of Fayette county is due to his thorough system and efficient manner of handling men. While his friends will regret to see him leave Connellville all will congratulate him on his advancement to a higher and more lucrative position.

FRICK COAL AND COKE ARCH AT MT. PLEASANT.

MT. PLEASANT PAYS ITS HOMAGE TO GOV. STUART.

Rousing Welcome to State's Executive When He Reaches Town This Morning—Parade to Armory Where the Speeches Are Made—Big Crowd Throgs the Streets—Governor Leaves Today.

Special to the Courier.
MT. PLEASANT, July 8.—Today is the climax of Mt. Pleasant's Old Home Week celebration. The town is more gaily decorated today than any previous day of the celebration, chiefly because of the fact that Pennsylvania's chief executive, Gov. Edwin S. Stuart and party will partake of the old town's hospitality.

The reception given the Governor was a royal one. The party consisting of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor Murphy and several prominent lawyers and business men of Greensburg arrived promptly at 11 o'clock on the West Penn special car from Greensburg making the trip in about 20 minutes.

Since early this morning the streets have been crowded and as the time for the Governor's arrival drew near a bunch of hospital citizens congregated at the junction at the lower end of Main street. The party met the Governor at the junction and escorted him up Main street, parading in order they were: Chief Marshal and Aides; Brigadier Band; Company L, N. G. P., followed by Governor Stuart and members of the reception committee and his party in about 10 automobiles. This was followed by private carriages and citizens on foot.

Lieutenant Governor Murphy did not arrive but Assistant Attorney General J. E. B. Cunningham is present. The party proceeded at once to the Armory where speeches were delivered in open air to a crowd of about 1,000 which had assembled.

Upon arriving at Mt. Pleasant Governor Stuart and his party were escorted up Main street to Eagle street and thence to the Armory. An informal reception was held for a short while after which the visitors mounted the speakers' stand. Attorney N. A. Court of Mt. Pleasant presided. He introduced Assistant Attorney General J. E. B. Cunningham of Greensburg, who, in turn, introduced Governor Stuart.

Governor Stuart delivered a very brief address. To Cunningham he gave credit for persuading him to visit Mt. Pleasant because the press of other invitations for this week was so strong that it was difficult to make arrangements to reach Mt. Pleasant. The Governor said that he is glad now that he came. He praised Mt. Pleasant for its enterprises in holding such a successful Old Home Week celebration; complimented its aggressiveness and progressiveness, and lauded the town for its typical old fashioned hospitality.

Countess Drops Over 240 Feet in Aeroplane

United Press Telegram.
RHEIMS, France, July 8.—Baroness De La Roche, the most noted woman aviator in France, today is dying as the result of a fall of 240 feet from her aeroplane on Bethany Plains. The Baroness is a noted sportswoman who has achieved fame as an automobile driver, motorcyclist and horsewoman.

In January, on the day Leon De La Grange was killed while flying at Bordeaux, she was injured in a flight at Mourmelon. She received word of Grange's death previous to this flight and collapsed in the air while thinking of her friend's death.

In the fall today the Baroness had both arms and legs broken and was injured internally. There is no hope for her recovery. The aeroplane was demolished.

While flying in the aerodrome two other machines were flying in pursuit. She became confused and pulled the wrong lever while attempting to alight. The aeroplane overturned.

The younger Ripley, it is said, is negotiating for the purchase of a home and will make this his permanent residence. Under his personal direction rapid progress has been made on the South Connellville plant, which will be ready for operation in the near future.

An Automobile Parade Tomorrow at Mt. Pleasant

Mt. Pleasant will close its Old Home Week celebration tomorrow, and among the features of the last day will be a parade of automobiles. Starting at 8 o'clock there will be a great line of machines parade through the streets of Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. Pleasant, representing the town, is in charge of the parade and will be in charge of the parade at Arch street and accompanied it to Church street. The Old Fellows of Western Pennsylvania arrived here on special trains and street cars, and in addition to the parade held a convention. Firemen of the western part of the State will give a parade tomorrow. They also will participate in a drill contest and a water battle for prizes.

Superintendent J. W. Brown of the West Penn arrived in town at 1:10 this afternoon after having brought Governor Stuart and his party from Greensburg to Mt. Pleasant. This morning, with car No. 601 in charge of Motorium Lakin and Conductor Stoffy the two from the Westmoreland county seat to Mt. Pleasant was made in 39 minutes. The regular running time is 15 minutes.

LAD IS KILLED BY BOY COMPANION.

William Morgan, Aged 4,
Shot Through the Heart by Charge of Buckshot.

HARRY HART HELD THE GUN

Picked Up the Weapon, to See If It Was Loaded and It Went Off Accidentally—Coroner H. J. Bell Conducts the Inquest.

A loaded shot gun and two small boys figured in the tragedy at South Connellville yesterday afternoon which resulted in the almost instant death of William Lloyd Morgan, aged 4. The curiosity of Harry Hart, aged 9, had for some weapon had his sequel in an involuntary murder. The killing of an innocent had just learning the joys of childhood.

The accident happened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, who live on the second floor of a double house along Pittsburgh street just beyond Gibson avenue. Little William Morgan had been sent to the Johnson home for a waist belonging to his mother. Harry Hart went along with him. They found Mrs. Johnson cleaning house. The boys had gone up the steps in the rear, by which the Johnson kitchen is reached.

While Mrs. Johnson went to the front part of the house to get the waist, Harry Hart, who had entered the kitchen, picked up the 12 gauge, double-barreled shot gun, which he found behind the door leading into the adjoining room.

"Look out Willie," he warned, "I want to see if this gun is loaded."

The words had no sooner been uttered than there was a flash and a report. The charge entered the little Morgan boy in the left breast, he even the second and third ribs. The lad fell backwards across a chair on the porch. Mrs. Johnson, hearing the report, rushed to the kitchen and reached the porch as the lad breathed his last. Mrs. W. J. Churchill and J. F. Kerr were summoned but the boy was dead before either of them arrived. He lived probably two minutes after being shot.

The Hart boy, who was responsible for the accident, was frantic with grief over the accident. At the inquest last evening his testimony was disconnected and barely comprehensible. His replies were drowned in sobs.

It is not known just how the gun exploded. The conjecture is that Hart attempted to pull the hammer back on one of the barrels but the spring was too strong, the hammer slipping from his grasp and exploding the cartridge. The Morgan boy was standing outside the kitchen and on the porch when struck.

Mrs. Johnson had been cleaning house yesterday. The gun usually occupied a place in the room adjoining, but had been placed behind the door in the kitchen while Mrs. Johnson swept.

The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of J. L. Stader soon after the accident and prepared for burial. Services will be held at the Morgan home tonight at 8 o'clock, 9 o'clock, interment in Mt. Olive cemetery.

Quite a crowd gathered when the accident occurred. Mr. Johnson was down in the yard and did not pay any attention to the report of the gun until he heard his wife scream. He thought a big fire cracker has been exploded. Usually the gun was not kept loaded, but about a week ago one of Harry Hart's sisters accompanied Mrs. Johnson home at night. After leaving for home, she returned, badly frightened, saying a man was after her. It was then that Johnson loaded the weapon which was to snuff out the life of the little Morgan lad.

The child-victim was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norval B. Morgan of Gibson avenue, South Connellville. He has one sister, little Lillian, aged 18 months Harry Hart, who held the gun, is 9 years of age. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart, also of Gibson avenue. The lads often played together.

Coroner H. J. Bell of Dawson held an inquest at the Johnson home last evening. The only witnesses examined were Dr. W. J. Churchill, Mrs. Harry Johnson and the little Hart lad. After hearing the evidence the coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting. Those on the jury were W. S. Stummel, W. J. Baer, E. M. Addis, L. C. Brundridge, J. S. Weimer and Thomas Anderson.

PRESIDENT COX HERE TO APPROVE EXTENSION PLANS.

Head of Continuous Press Glass Company Going Over Ground at Dunbar—Wait on Western Maryland Plans.

President Walter Cox of the Continuous Press Glass Company reached Connellville last evening and is going over various matters of importance with other officials of the glass company at Dunbar. Mr. Cox could not be reached this morning but it is understood his visit here is in connection with the plans for increasing the capacity of the glass plant at Dunbar. Mr. Cox came here from his office in Philadelphia. It is not at all unlikely that during his visit he will receive some light regarding the plans of the Connellville & State Line railroad.

PITTSBURG HIT BY BIG STORM.

Trolley Car Service Impeded;

CAR WASHED OFF THE TRACK

Lightning and Downpour Do Hundreds of Dollars of Damage to Smoky City and Vicinity—One Bolt Hits Power Plant and Sets Place on Fire.

Pittsburgh, July 8.—Driven by a fifty-two miles an hour gale an electrical storm which visited Pittsburgh and vicinity caused fires, was responsible for personal injuries, burned out street car, electric light and telephone fuses, piled dirt from hillsides on streets, delaying traffic, in many cases for hours, uprooted trees, destroyed gardens and lawns and did thousands of dollars' worth of damage.

Street car traffic on the Southside was tied up for about an hour as a result of lightning striking the power plant of the Pittsburgh Railway company.

When the bolt reached one of the large generators there was a blinding flash. The first floor of the building was on fire in an instant and before it was extinguished $1,000 damage had been done, exclusive of that to the generator.

As the storm was preparing to leave Leo Brackey, nine years old, was struck over the right eye with a brass coupling.

Tons of mud were washed from the hillsides at Fifty-seventh street onto Butler street, covering the car tracks and rendering all kinds of traffic difficult until cleared away.

Inmates in the home of Horace Bull, in the Homewood district, were stunned when lightning struck the chimney of the house, demolishing the chimney, tearing up the slate roof and causing $1,000 damage.

As usual the South district was one of the heaviest sufferers. The water rushed down the steep hills with the speed of a mill race and sidewalks and cellars were undermined. Several tons of earth was deposited on the sidewalks along Fifth avenue and Forbes street, from the hills, obstructing passage and forming large lakes of water.

Munhall creek overflowed its banks, flooding cellars and derailing a street car in Ravine street, Munhall. The car was filled with fifty workmen returning from the Homestead steel works. When it attempted to pass through the flood it was swept from the tracks and the passengers were compelled to wade through the torrent.

In the outlying districts farmers and gardeners report that much of their produce, which was growing on hillsides, had been washed out.

In Millvale and Etna the streets were under a foot of water and street car services were demoralized.

Pennsylvania Railroad Wage Dispute

What the Men Say. Generally speaking, yard rates put into effect by your company compare favorably with the rates paid by other companies in the territory, but we contend that both road and yard rates should be higher on our lines than paid by other companies for similar service, because the policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad has always seemingly been to educate their employees in the belief that certain of such employees were entitled to from 5 to 20 per cent. more than paid by other companies for similar service. We feel we are entitled to a continuation of the practice accompanied by standard condition of payment.

What the Company Says. Is it fair to penalize your company now, because, in the past, it has treated its employees as liberally as its finances would permit, regardless of wages paid by its competitors; and, further, because in this instance it has more than met the advances of the other roads? The earnings of the railroad are derived from the movement of freight and passengers. The rates are set by the direct competition of these other lines that 90 per cent. of the gross earnings of your company today is on commodities, etc., on which the rates are exactly similar to those of other lines, or on rates otherwise set by competitive conditions.

John Campbell Was a Splendid Soldier But as Citizen He Was Incurable.

John Campbell, who died in an ambulance at Greensburg Wednesday was one of the most remarkable characters of the Tenth regiment during its service in the Philippines. He was a member of Company I of Greensburg, and lived at Barnesboro, Pa. Campbell was enlisted at Mt. Gretna and not at Greensburg as stated in some papers. He was enlisted as a drummer, the company being short of musicians. Just before the regiment started for San Francisco Campbell broke one of Col. Hawkins' rules, making an attack on a negro and was thrown into the guard house. Campbell rebelled against all discipline and when the regiment was ordered to San Francisco he was put in chains. On arriving at Manila he was put on trial for insubordination and disorderly conduct. While in prison he appealed to Col. Hawkins to release him and promised that he would prove that he was a soldier. He was returned to his regiment and in following skirmishes won the admiration of the entire regiment by his daring and boldness. At the battle of Bulacan river, when volunteers were called upon to swim the river and take the trenches, Campbell was one of the first to respond. He in company with Ezra Ruff swam the river and captured the sword of the Philippine commander, the flag, and a company of 25 men, and returning presented them to Gen. F. J. Funston, who commended them upon their bravery. Campbell enlisted on May 3rd, 1898, and came home with the regiment in the fall of 1899. He only served a short time in the band because he was imprisoned most of the time. At one time he was in the Manila prison for a few days. Three years after his return he had a log taken out of the R. R. R. while on route from Latrobe to Greensburg.

The Famous "Holeproof" Hosiery Can Now Be Purchased Only At This Store

This Hosiery is Absolutely Insured Against Holes for Six Months

We have just secured the selling agency for the famous Holeproof Hosiery in this city. This is the original guaranteed hosiery that has been so widely advertised in the magazines but which has never yet been on sale at any store in town.

The guarantee which we reproduce on this page comes with every box of the hosiery. It is a promise that we will gladly redeem—if any of the hosiery needs darning or mending within six months it will be exchanged for new hosiery.

The manufacturers of this hosiery stand back of us in making this guarantee. They have used only the finest and best materials the market affords. They pay 63 cents a pound for Egyptian and Sea Island cotton, instead of buying the ordinary cotton at 12 cents a pound.

Every pair is stylish as well as comfortable. They are made to fit the ankle as smoothly as a glove fits the hand. They are soft and dainty yet they outwear other hosiery almost six to one.

Men's hose come in eleven colors and women's in six. Price from $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Children's hose come only in black and tan at $2 a box of six pairs.

FAMOUS
Holeproof Hosiery
FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

There is only one difference between the common hosiery and "Holeproof." And that is that "Holeproof" wears six times as long as the other. Yet the price for both is the same. "Holeproof" is made with 3-ply yarn in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. This gives double the strength where the wear comes most.

Every pair is minutely inspected before it leaves the factory. It costs $30,000 a year for this inspection alone so you understand something of the quality that goes in "Holeproof." It has taken 31 years to attain this perfection but the sales now amount to more than 3,000,000 pairs every year. No other guaranteed hosiery begins to equal such tremendous sales as this. We invite everyone to call and examine this wonderful hosiery before purchasing. We want you to note how soft and comfortable it really is. We want you to see the attractive colors for yourself and to note the stylish appearance.

We know that once you have done this you will never again be satisfied with the common hosiery that costs just as much but needs to be darned every week.

HISTORIC CHURCH TO CELEBRATE ON SUNDAY

Fells Methodist Episcopal Congregation is Now Over 125 Years Old.

WEBSTER, Pa., July 8.—Arrangements have been made for the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the organization of the Fells Methodist Episcopal Church, next Sunday. The historic place, near the border of Westmoreland county, about a mile from this place and Donora, will probably be visited by large congregations. Bishop David H. Moore, of Cincinnati, one of the brilliant men of the church, who, as pastor, college president for several years, has traveled the globe for almost a half century will preach and the Rev. Dr. B. F. Buzzell, a descendant of two families identified with the church in its early days, will make a historical address.

The old church stands on what was known as the Pittsburgh, Uniontown and Baltimore road, in its historic ground. Washington and Braddock carved out the eastern part of the highway in 1754, and General Lee's forces came that way to quell the "Whiskey Insurrection" in 1794. On General Lafayette's triumphant tour of America in 1824, he traveled that way and his luncheon stop, not far from the church is still pointed out.

"A Patriot and a Christian; a friend of Washington and a friend of God," is the inscription on a modest stone in the old cemetery which marks the resting place of Benjamin Fells, for whom the church was named. Several English families of that name settled in and near Philadelphia about the middle of the eighteenth century and their descendants are now prominent in that city.

During the Revolutionary war their Quaker beliefs kept all neutral except Benjamin Fells, who gave so much aid to the Continentals that the British offered a reward for his capture. About 1785 he came with his family to the western region and settled on the 600 acres in the center of which the church now stands.

The society was organized in 1785 and the first meeting house built in 1792. This stood until the present stone church was erected in 1831. Dr. Van Vorst of Baltimore, the historian of the Montgomery Valley, says:

"The Benazoli and Fells hewed the logs for the old church; they whittled the materials for stairs and pulpit." Before the construction of this first church, however, services were held in the homes of these two families, the dating as early as 1732.

Never in the century and a quarter of its existence has the old church been without regular services. More than 200 ministers have preached in the pulpit of the two buildings and the congregation is still vigorous, with a membership of more than 100.

How to Cure Eczema, Pimples and Dandruff.

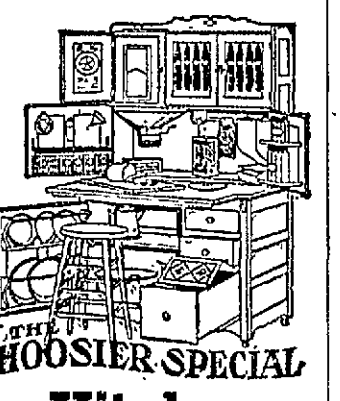

We desire to say that when we took the agency for ZEMO, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, Pimples and Dandruff. You must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as ZEMO has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like ZEMO too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use. ZEMO effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infant's delicate skin. With every purchase we give a booklet on skin diseases explaining in simple words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin diseases by this clean, scientific remedy. THE PROPOSED BOROUGH BOND ISSUES.

The mathematical facts concerning the proposed new borough bond issues to be passed upon by the citizens at the polls on Tuesday are set forth in our news columns with dispassionate precision. To the casual observer or the unenlightened stranger they may look dry and uninteresting, but behind them lie some interesting chapters of municipal mismanagement and some broad hints of public scandal.

Due to the unpleasant fact is before us; the unpleasant recollection, behind, the question to be determined on Tuesday is what is best for the borough under the conditions which confront us. The consequences of opinion seem to be that the $25,000 refunding issue should be approved as a matter of good business. It will restore the borough's credit and reduce the rate of interest on the indebtedness.

It is generally agreed that this floating debt was unlawfully incurred, and on that account some prominent citizens have been led to legalize it by the proposed bond issue, but if the trend of judicial decisions may be relied upon it seems inevitable that the borough will have to pay innocent creditors. It cannot take advantage of its own wrong committed through its official representatives. This is common sense as well as common law.

The remedy against Town Councilmen or School Directors who exceed the lawful limit of indebtedness is either by injunction or other legal procedure, not excepting prosecution; and this brings to mind the importance of having the public accounts properly audited each year, and having a clear and comprehensive statement of the resources and liabilities of the borough or township or school district properly published in the public newspapers and by handbills where advisable, to the end that the taxpayers may always know whether their representatives are keeping within the limit of the law, and whether they have been economical or extravagant, faithful or unfaithful, honest or dishonest, in the performance of their public duties. The economy that is practiced upon the printer is the poorest known to public service. The official who objects to making public accounts public usually has some other and more sinister motive than public economy.

The second proposition to be considered on Tuesday by the taxpayers of Connelville is the issue of $25,000 of 1 1/2% bonds for street improvements. There is a disposition to defeat this, not because its wisdom and necessity is not apparent, not because the unimproved sections do not have a moral claim on the borough for better streets, but because the people think it means another increase in borough taxation. They point to the fact that the School Board has made a radical advance in taxation, and they feel that they cannot stand any additional burdens.

But the borough taxes have been levied for this year and cannot be increased. The increase in school taxes this year is temporary. It was made necessary by extravagance and mismanagement of school affairs in the past. There is no reason why the school levy for 1911 should not be down to normal, and there will be no excuse for not so reducing it.

In addition to these undoubted facts, the borough authorities who propose these bond issues assert that they can be made without increasing taxation. If this be so, the most serious objection to the street improvement bond issue will have been removed. We shall tomorrow present this side of the case for the information of citizens. In the meantime, every voter should give the bond propositions his earnest consideration with a view to voting as shall seem best for the borough, which is to say best for himself.

CANDIDATE WISE ON PATRIOTISM.

It has been unkindly suggested that the Dundee fire was started by a smouldering spark from Jesse Hunt Wise's fiery Fourth of July oration, but we repeat this malicious allusion with scorn. In justice to Jesse it should be stated that he didn't fire anything but patriotism. His speech was a scorching, but it didn't scorch anybody, at least not so it could be said.

A feature of his address, the historical portion of which we reproduce in another column, is his familiarity with his subjects. He refers reflectively to "Bob" Morris and his noble and unselfish support of the Revolutionary cause. He probably did not feel that he knew Albert Gallatin well enough to call him "Bob," or that the extent of his acquaintance with Jacques Lafayette warranted him in referring to that distinguished foreigner as "Laf." but we find ourselves wondering why he did not allude to Justice McCreary, a former Greene county, as "Laf." It is also a noteworthy fact that, while referring to Fayette county's statesman Gallatin, Dawson, Boyle and others he modestly refrained from mentioning the name of his distinguished paternal ancestor, the late Honorable Morgan R. Wise, who represented this district in Congress for several terms. We find his reason for so doing in this wireless message from the Ancestry Club in the Spirit World: "Nothing is more shameful to a man than to find his little to esteem, not in his own merits, but in the fame of his ancestor. The glory of the fathers is doubtless to their children a most precious treasure; but to enjoy it without transmitting it to the next generation, and without adding to it yourselves, this is the height of imbecility."

The secret is out. The source of Candidate Wise's ambition is laid bare. He desires to add to his father's Congressional inheritance and to transmit it to posterity; in short, he wants to establish a Wise dynasty at Washington. It is a worthy ambition, but we are still inclined to our original view that the basis of its operation should be removed to Wise county, Virginia.

While the Dundee oration of Candidate Wise was non-partisan and patriotic enough to suit the discerning taste of John Lester Keeling, the Democratic editor of the more or less Democratic Uniontown Gazette-Independent, it concludes with some glowing references to Pure Politics and the American Boy which sound somewhat familiar. However, a candidate with so much verbal energy as Jesse Hunt Wise could not reasonably be expected to speak at considerable length without touching upon the great product of his individual political genius, the Wise Platform of 1910, destined in the humble judgment of its author to go ringing down the ages a trumpet note of triumphant Democracy.

The Morning Herald groves mightily for every trifling typographical error it discovers in the columns of the Courier. The funny part about it is that its own lapses never give it any concern. It is a gross oversight concerning us can be explained upon only one hypothesis. The Herald loves us so!

Scotchmen are going into alfalfa. Hay there!

This is Governor's Day at Mount Pleasant.

The small boy and the loaded gun are dangerous companions. Parents should be careful. The South Connelville Herald is only one of many that have happened.

There is surging and insurging around Oyster Bay.

The Indian creek railroad has a new "engine" and a band of young "Indians" have established a camp in the valley. The inhabitants, however, feel no alarm.

Candidate Jesse Wise

on American Patriotism.

I feel as if I were on hallowed ground, and as I look into your faces, a flood of historic recollections rush into my mind of what great hallowed ground Fayette county is.

The history of Washington is a part of our history. The history of Lafayette is a large portion of our history, and it is supported that now the great County of Fayette is nursing the sacred remains of General Braddock.

The foot-prints of the great Lafayette for whom this great county is named, are visible in history records in many parts of the county, and what a great man General Lafayette was.

He left France, deserting friends and relatives, without any hope of reward and came to this country and fought for the independence of the American people. But his love for America was so great, that he wanted his life for her welfare without any hope of reward.

Oh what patriots we had in revolutionary days, when we think of George Morris, George Washington giving their all for our independence and liberty that was handed down to us as a heritage, and which we are now enjoying until this day. George Washington, you remember, had a little band of soldiers at Valley Forge, fighting for the independence of our country, without any clothing or shoes in the dead of winter, and Washington thought it was impossible to survive against the elements of the weather without assistance, and came to Philadelphia and got together a little band of patriots and appealed to them, made a last appeal for money at a meeting and when Washington started out his address used these words:

"My eyes have grown dim in the service of my country, and yet I have never doubted her services," at the same time taking of his spectacles. "We are told by the great historian, Bancroft, that Morris gave all the money he had in the world for the support of this little band of soldiers in order that he might enjoy the liberty that we are now enjoying, and he died in the poor house."

Now when we realize that our great liberty was bought by such great sacrifices as this, is it not fitting that we should meet together on this Sabbath day of the nation and put aside all common cares of life, and seize a respite from the ever-ending toils of our busy life, and meet in gladness and congratulations, mindful of the blessings transmitted from the past, mindful also, I trust, of the duties of the present and the future, may he who now addresses you be enabled to direct your mind to a path you shall not soon have lost a day.

I know that you are the best people in all the world, as your district is teeming with wealth, and the day is not far off when the sound of the anvil and the clank of the pick taking the valuable minerals out of the earth will be heard in this county. I know that you are the best people in all the world, as your district is teeming with wealth, and the day is not far off when the sound of the anvil and the clank of the pick taking the valuable minerals out of the earth will be heard in this county.

ALFALFA CROPS ABOUT SCOTSDALE.

Many Farmers are Growing
This Wonderful Hay
With Success.

MORGAN CAMPBELL IS DEAD

Aged Quaker Passes Away and Will Be Buried at Perryopolis—More
Building Planned For West Scottdale—Frick Teams Play Tomorrow.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, July 8.—Alfalfa or Lucerne, easily the queen of all the clovers and of all the plants of the meadow is being grown in this neighborhood with fine success, and preparations are being made by several to sow alfalfa this season. Solomon Suter, the dairyman of near Hawkoye, has probably the best and largest field of this great plant, and has been the pioneer grower of it in this locality. Mr. Suter has grown a good sized alfalfa meadow, with increasing results, for some years, and other farmers are emulating him. As an illustration of the wonderful possibilities of this plant, Mr. Suter says that on June 14 he cut the first crop of the plant and that on July 8 he had grown 25 tons on a second crop, making the truly marvelous growth of two inches a day. Three crops a season is alfalfa's yield, and former Mayor John S. Sell, of Greensburg, a grower of it in that end of the county, says that pound for pound alfalfa is the equivalent of wheat. While farmers about here plan to sow earlier, Mr. Sell does not sow until August 10, and then after several weeks of preparation of well limed, well manured soil, frequently harrowed to keep down the weeds, he sows the alfalfa broadcast crossways of the field, in order to get a thick stand of the alfalfa. He says that this late sowing beats the weeds, and escapes wet weather, dangerous to alfalfa, while dry weather is friendly to it. George Freest, A. J. Porter and James B. Fretts, a mile west of town, all have good starts made in the cultivation of this great hay crop. M. F. Stoner of Nebo has bought 100 pounds of seed and expects to sow five acres soon. Harry Stoner and Frank Chela are also among those in this locality who expect to sow some alfalfa this year. Experiments thus far have demonstrated this locality is well suited for alfalfa for the growth of this wonderful foodstuff, and is giving promise to become extensive about here.

Morgan Campbell Dead.
Morgan Campbell, who was born in Perry township, Fayette county, 86 years ago, died last night at 10:30 at his home on Chestnut street, Scottdale, after an illness of several weeks. A gradual wearing out from age seemed the cause of death. The deceased was a resident of Scottdale almost over since its incorporation, and had the respect of all who knew him. In spite of his age he was able to get about until lately, and was always characterized by the greatest neatness. The deceased is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ruth Henderson, aged 87, who maintained a full, fracturing hip, while she was living in Connellsville, a year or so ago. She was brought here not long ago and is now confined to her room and will be unable to be at the funeral. Of the family Clark and Caleb Campbell of the West Side, Connellsville; Samuel, living beyond Uniontown, and Bailey, of Illinois, are brothers living and Joseph of Vanderbilt and Robert of West Newton are brothers of the deceased. The last two are dead. Three daughters survive, Mary and Ruth of Scottdale, and Mrs. Lizette Cummings of Tarentum, all of whom are here. The family are Quakers and the deceased will be buried on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Quaker Cemetery beyond Perryopolis, leaving here about 7 o'clock.

No Poultry Meeting.
The Scottdale Poultry and Pot Stock Association was to have held a meeting at the borough building last evening, but on account of failure to secure a quorum no meeting was held. President S. O. Steiner announces that the next meeting will be held at the borough building on Thursday evening, July 21, at 8 o'clock, and that it is important for every member to be present.

Strawberries Are Done.
This has been a late strawberry season, and the berries of whom someone said, "The Lord might have made a better berry but he didn't," are finished up. S. S. Flack of near town, the most extensive strawberry grower near here, says that he brought his last berries in yesterday.

Another New House.
It is said that another new house is to be added to the long line extending into the country out Pittsburgh street extension past the White school house. Harry Anderson, a son of David Anderson, and who is now living at Jeannette, is said to be planning to build this summer on his lot.

In the Parade.
The Odd Fellows from here went to Mt. Pleasant in a special car on the West Penn railway last night to take part in the Odd Fellows parade. They were accompanied by the Firemen's Drum Corps, which played some very stirring music.

A Frick Ball Game.
The Everon car shops team of the Frick company have arranged a game of baseball with the Broad Ford team of the same company for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game is scheduled to take place on the car shop diamond in Everon, near the famous "Striker's tree," where labor meetings were held during the old days of the region.

Buzzing Wires.
For a couple of days and nights the insistent buzzing of the wires at Pittsburg street and Broadway has attracted much attention, as it sounds like a big electric battery in operation. Wires having come in contact has been causing the noise and today linemen changed them.

Summer Hair Dressing.

Ask A. A. Clark For Parian Sage, If You Want the Best.

Almost everybody in Connellsville knows that there is no preparation for the hair that can compare with Parian Sage. It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It puts radiance and lustre into that dull, lifeless hair that many women possess, and does it in a few days. It makes hair grow; prevents hair from turning gray; and is without doubt the most refreshing and invigorating hair tonic in the world. It is daintily perfumed and is not in the least sticky or greasy. In summer, people of refinement use it regularly, because it keeps the scalp cool and free from the odor of perspiration.

On March 25, 1910, Lulu D. Fix, of Raphine, Va., wrote: "Parian Sage is a wonderful hair restorer; it stopped my hair from falling out and stopped my scalp from itching; also cured the dandruff. I only used one bottle, but I like it so much I am going to use more."

Parian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere and by A. A. Clark for 50 cents a large bottle. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by American Makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Work on Western Maryland Railroad Between Connellsville and Cumberland.

MEYERSDALE, July 8.—The last week has witnessed some very active preparations being made, all along the line of the Western Maryland Railroad to the West End of the Bruce Head contract. Here through this contract and that of the Somerset Construction Company who have the building of the concrete bridges and arches, one of them at the Marteen place, the work appears to be at a standstill. The main work for these bridges and all others on the line has been let to a Pittsburgh construction company.

W. H. Wilkey & Company of Uniontown, have the section extending from the Red farm four miles to the Casselman river at Harpersville, where a large bridge will span the stream. The Wilkey firm are making work and have been grading for over two weeks on the Red farm west of the Youghiogheny river. Between that river and the Casselman a steam shovel has been dragged through the river and is now ready to go to work on the cut through the Red farm that is supposed to be the largest cut on the line extending diagonally through this large farm from one end to the other and will be 37 feet deep throughout the greater part. This firm had a large new dinky engine run on a side track Monday and are receiving rails for building their temporary tracks.

On the same section the H. E. Ray Construction Company have the contract for doing all the concrete work, extending east beyond the Casselman river. From Harpersville to Fort Hill and from there to Pinkerton the country being along the river and very rough there has not been much work done. East from Pinkerton to Rockwood the wood is all cleared and burned and the contractors, Patton & Richardson have an enormous lot of all kinds of machinery on the different sidings and every preparation is being made for an immediate inauguration of active operations.

Garrett and vicinity is another section where active operations in grading is being pushed. Fisher & Carroll, the contractors on this section have a large force of men and are well equipped with horses, mules, wagons and all kinds of machinery used in this kind of work.

In the B & O yard at Confluence there is a large steam shovel, one of the largest and most modern to be found along the line that is waiting to be moved to some of the sections in that vicinity.

Druck Head, the contractor on the Meyersdale section, is moving a large steam shovel into position at the Keystone cut and active operations will likely commence at that point the coming week.

G. W. Terry, locating engineer, and J. A. Moore, assistant engineer, and a force of engineers are at work revising the line from Garrett to Fort Hill. This revision was made necessary by the attitude of a property holder at Markleton with whom the company could not come to terms. After this revision is completed, the same party of engineers will re-locate the line from Markleton's farm to Keystone in the Meyersdale section. They are hurrying to Fort Hill to have the survey ready as soon as possible to commence work on the Pinkerton tunnel.

THE DARR MINE RELIEF REPORT.

Committee Shows Distribution From Public and Private Funds.

WANT NAMES OF DONORS

Widows and Orphans of the Men Killed in Mine Down the Young Were Helped According to the Original Graded Schedule.

The Darr mine relief committee has issued a report of its operations, detailing the aid given to the hundreds of widows and orphans left dependent by the terrible disaster of December 12, 1907, when 238 miners were killed in an explosion at the mines of the Pittsburg Coal Company at Jacobs Creek, Pa.

The report shows that the public response to the needs of the stricken mining settlement was worthy and ably administered by the relief committee composed of representative Western Pennsylvanians and Governor Edwin S. Stuart as one of the body. How every penny of the $75,000 was accounted for by a systematic rating of stricken widows and orphans is given in detail together with receipts from public and private sources.

Price, Waterhouse & Company, expert accountants, have passed on the report of the committee and found its disbursements were made along the plan originally recommended by the committee was painstaking in its efforts to distribute the money in an equitable manner where it would operate to the best advantage and that disbursements and receipts balanced within $21.

This little balance together with a subscription from the committee members was used to publish the report which is being sent to all persons who donated to the needy families. Coleman J. Joyce, member of the executive committee, is seeking names and addresses of many modest contributors, who did not send names with their donations in order that they, too, can be furnished with a copy.

Some success has been offered the widows and orphans for the unhappy memories of the fatal morning when, just before the noon hour, all the workmen in that mine were hurled to death or entombed alive, save one. Added to the amount received by the public subscription, which totaled $75,000, was the disbursement of $33,700 by the Employers' Relief Association of the Pittsburg Coal Company. By other benevolent efforts made from the general fund about $10,000 more was added, bringing the entire Darr Mine Relief Fund to an approximate total of $141,700 of cash benefits. In addition there was given to the poor families large supplies of clothing, food, coal and other relief needed by the stricken ones during that unhappy Christmas tide.

The committee exercised two ways in paying off the money to beneficiaries. Where the head of the household had been taken away while trying to pay for a little home in the mining town it became necessary to pay out the entire benefit to such a family. In other cases the money was ordered distributed as follows on monthly installments:

For each widow.....	$251.00
For each child under 16.....	100.00
For each child over 16.....	100.00
For the widowed mother, to whose support the decedent actually contributed.....	$251.00
For each child under 16.....	100.00
For all other relatives or dependents, to whose support the decedent actually contributed, a total for each death of.....	100.00
Committee's Summary:
Subscriptions received.....	$75,000.00
Benefit paid direct to beneficiaries.....	33,700.00
Benefit deposited in trust for beneficiaries.....	55,400.00
Total.....	$164,100.00
Expenses of Issuing Letters of Appeal.....	111.00
Postage.....	1,522.00
Printing.....	357.11
Typewriter and other.....	227.50
Deduct: Interest received on bank deposits.....	916.72
Cash balance on hand July 17, 1910.....	21.25

The benefits were graded according to the condition of families. There were 14 classes ranging from the widow with no dependent children to the widow with six children. Similar grading was observed in the classes designed for dependents of unmarried victims.

Following the first distribution later information was gathered regarding dependent families and an increase to the relief fund made possible a second distribution, equal in amount to about 27 per cent. of the first. These were fixed on the schedule basis adopted by the committee as follows: To each widow, of the widowed mother of an unmarried man, $13.00 per month; to each child who may have had under 10 years of age, $5.00 per month additional; to relative and dependents of unmarried men, $10.00 per month. In accordance with this rule, payments to these beneficiaries residing in Europe were made in full upon information as to their condition and location. Such information was obtained through the Consuls of the various European countries, resident in Pittsburgh, based upon investigations conducted in Europe by them, and by agents of their respective governments.

The beneficiaries of foreign birth residing at or near Jacobs Creek, who desired to return to their homes in Europe, were paid their allowance by draft drawn by the Fidelity Title & Trust Company of Pittsburgh on its correspondents in Europe, and payable only to the beneficiaries at their destination. In some cases the people were provided with an amount of cash sufficient to defray their traveling expenses, and a foreign draft for the balance of their allowance.

The Darr mine relief committee is composed of the following members: George W. Guthrie, chairman; W. H. Coleman, vice chairman; A. D. Salasent, Connelldale, vice chairman; Oliver McClintock, secretary; James J. Donnell, President of the Fidelity Title & Trust Company; Governor Edwin S. Stuart; Bishop Cortlandt Whithead, Bishop J. P. Regis Canavan, LeBaron Jules Bornemis, Hunsberger, J. W. Crawford, W. C. Cronmeyer, H. D. W. Smith, Francis Feehan, Robert C. Hall, Coleman J. Joyce, Thomas Lynch, P. J. Mrs. C. F. Kefover Dies Suddenly at Uniontown

Special to The Courier. UNIONTOWN, July 8.—Mrs. Charles F. Kefover, wife of Attorney Kefover, died very suddenly at her home on West Fayette street, this morning at 5 o'clock. Bright's disease was given as the immediate cause of death, though she had been suffering for some time with severe headaches.

She was 42 years of age. She was born in Uniontown, Pa. Her husband, Charles F. Kefover, is at present in a sanitarium in Battle Creek, Mich. Two sisters, Misses Emma and Lydia Seagriff, and a brother, William, are living. All reside in Uniontown.

William Seagriff left during the first part of the week on an automobile trip with Jasper Augustine, and up until noon today relatives had been unable to get word to him.

Mrs. Kefover was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, from which the funeral will probably be held. Interment will be made in Oak Grove Cemetery. No arrangements have yet been made.

The sum of $1,817.60 is a sum equivalent to the refunding issue of $25,000, as the best that can be made of a bad bargain, but there is some hailing on the $25,000 street improvement issue, and from present appearances its friends will have to do some full hustling to save it from decisive defeat.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS HAVE GREAT TIME

Their Camp is Pitched up Indian Creek Valley and All Goes Well.

FIRST SWIM GRAND SPLASH

Boys Could Hardly Wait for the Word to be Given at 4 P. M.—Advance Details Massacres Bull Frogs—Good Meals and a Fine Time.

Reports from Indian Creek valley are to effect that the Y. M. C. A. campers are having the greatest time over. The boys went into camp yesterday and reached the grounds just as the train started. They were herded into the big dining tent which afforded ample room for recreation. It was not necessary for them to splash about in the wet.

The campers found the advance detail had erected a large dining tent, three sleeping tents, and tents for the commissary department, the supplies and the kitchen. The meals are the best and good appetites are the rule rather than the exception.

The boys launched the three new canvas canoes yesterday afternoon and found them both well balanced and serviceable. At the stroke of four the first swimming was enjoyed. There was a scurry for the water as the boys had been waiting around, some of them for an hour, until the word was given. Today the boys will erect a 50 foot flag pole. E. W. Horner supervised the building of the dock for a landing place for the canoes. Mrs. J. B. Chas. is accompanying the campers this year and assisting Secretary Chase, Physical Director Kilbourne and those in charge of the 30 youngsters.

The advance detail had a great time Wednesday evening. A mess of frogs was secured, the largest haul made in that section for many months. The boys slept soundly at night but one of them was awakened by the supposed rooting of a hog only to learn that one of his companions in an adjoining tent was snoring in his sleep.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Lutz, 633 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure those obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to a painful operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indigestion which have gone on from the early years through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive trouble, nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Bilelessness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Choking, Indigestion, Constipation, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine or known concoction, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take up candy.

In Complete Readiness--The Great July Clearance Starts Friday

When the captain clears his ship for action, everything goes overboard, except the necessities to carry on the battle. No matter what the value of the things thus disposed of—they must go, to allow absolute freedom for the business of war. This July Clearance Sale is very similar. While no such radical means are employed, a complete clearance is necessary for the business of merchandising. The price-cutting has been so thorough and deep, that the real values are lost sight of, in the endeavor to clear out all accumulated summer stocks at one swift stroke. Space for incoming Fall Goods is of more value to this house than the dollars and cents value of the goods to be disposed of.

Room on counters, shelves and racks is just as necessary to this business at this moment, as is the clear decks of a man-o-war in action.
